"Going Beyond"

Bible Methodist Ladies Retreat

Pell City, Alabama

October 13-15, 2011

"Going Beyond"

There are many Biblical accounts of women who faced the circumstances of their lives, took a risk, and became extraordinary. We are sure you are going to enjoy Sarah Fry's insights into the lives of some of these women and see how they went beyond. On Friday morning Jane Hannold will challenge you with the story of her ministry. Instead of an open devotional time each morning, we have asked Ruth Rice to write specific devotions for our theme. Also, expect to have an enjoyable time in the Friday night afterglow planned by Jenny Crotts.

Many women lovingly and generously donate their time and energy to better the lives of others. They go beyond the call of duty. The committee wants to award someone this year who exhibits these qualities of "Going Beyond". On Saturday morning we plan to recognize her with the ORDER OF THE TOWEL AND BASIN award. Please read the criteria on the nominating form and submit a nomination.

Our goal is for you to be challenged in His Word, encouraged to keep serving, and refreshed by His presence. We are looking forward to seeing you October 13, 14, and 15, 2011.

Linda, Karen, and Jenny

SPECIAL SPEAKERS

Sarah Fry is married to David and a mother to Kayla, Karissa, Caideen and Corin. She has earned a Bachelor of Arts in Music Education/Piano Performance and a Master of Arts in Practical Ministries/Pastoral Counseling. David and Sarah enjoy hiking, bird watching, kayaking, running and photography. She also teaches private voice, violin and piano lessons. But, according to Sarah, she is primarily a professional wiper. Most of her time is spent wiping eyes, bottoms, dishes and counters. She loves seeing Beauty in the everyday and is constantly amazed by Grace. She and her family live in Frankfort, Indiana, with their three golden retrievers.

Jane Hannold is married to Bud, a professor at Hobe Sound Bible College, Hobe Sound, Florida. She is a mother of two daughters who have blessed them with grandchildren. For twenty-five years Jane was involved with Pregnancy Resource Centers. She began as a receptionist and then for twenty years worked as a counselor. She recently was licensed to be a doula. Each week she ministers at Indiantown, Florida, at the Teen Girl's Club. Jane is director of Family Care Ministries, a division of the Hope International Ministries, Hobe Sound, Florida. Presently, she is opening a craft shop to benefit this ministry.
