DUANE QUESENBERRY

Duane is a husband to Valorie, a father to three daughters and one son, a pastor, and a follower of Jesus. His passions are serving Jesus, doing life with family, and discipling others. On his days off, he enjoys time at the shooting range, reading in the corner chair of local coffee shops, and cruising the back roads of rural Indiana on his Shadow 1100.

DANIEL EDWARDS

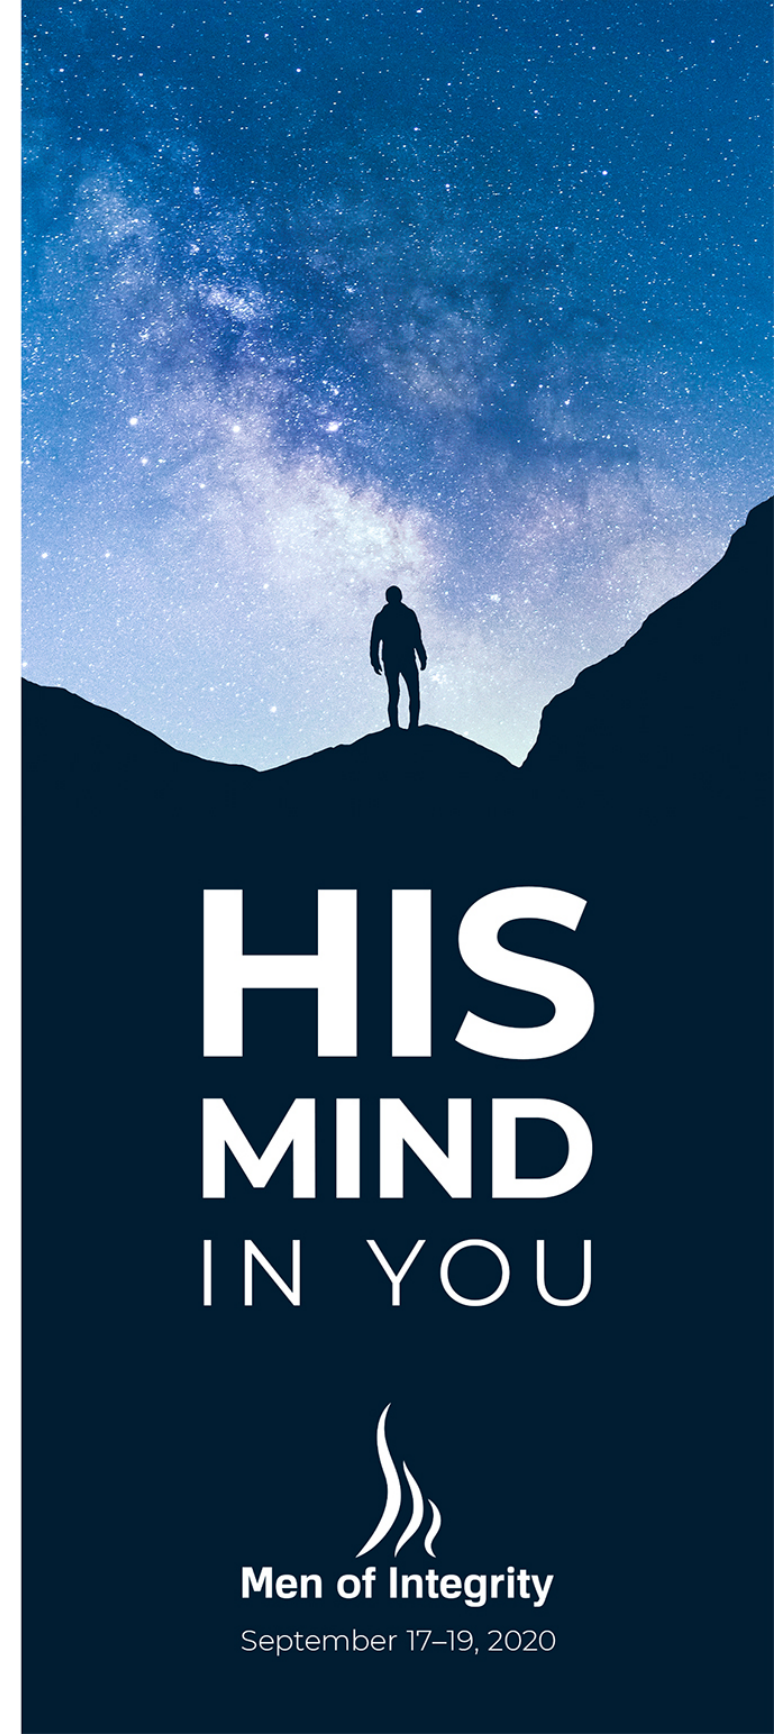

Daniel has been involved in evangelism and song evangelism for most of his life, first with his parents, and then with his own family. For the past twenty years, he has pastored the Sparrow Creek Friends Church, Winchester, IN. He also helps run their family farm. He is married to Angie, and they have five children.
