

FIND YOUR PLACE IN GOD'S GLOBAL MISSION

A Practical Guide for Churches, Small Groups, and Every Believer Seeking Their Role in God's Redemptive Work

Richard G. Hutchison with David Martinez

From the opening pages of Scripture to the spread of the gospel across the world today, God has been at work redeeming people from every nation, tribe, and tongue. But where do you fit into that story?

Finding Your Place in God's Global Mission is a clear, practical, and biblically grounded guide designed to help believers and local churches understand God's mission and participate in it more faithfully. Richard G. Hutchison, with David Martinez, traces the mission of God through Scripture, church history, and the present-day global church, helping readers move beyond general awareness into meaningful engagement.

Written especially for the local church, this resource is ideal for pastors, missions leaders, Sunday school classes, small groups, missions services, and individual believers who want to think more biblically and act more intentionally in the work of global missions. The book includes discussion questions and is structured for flexible use as a thirteen-week Sunday school study or as a year-long monthly missions resource.

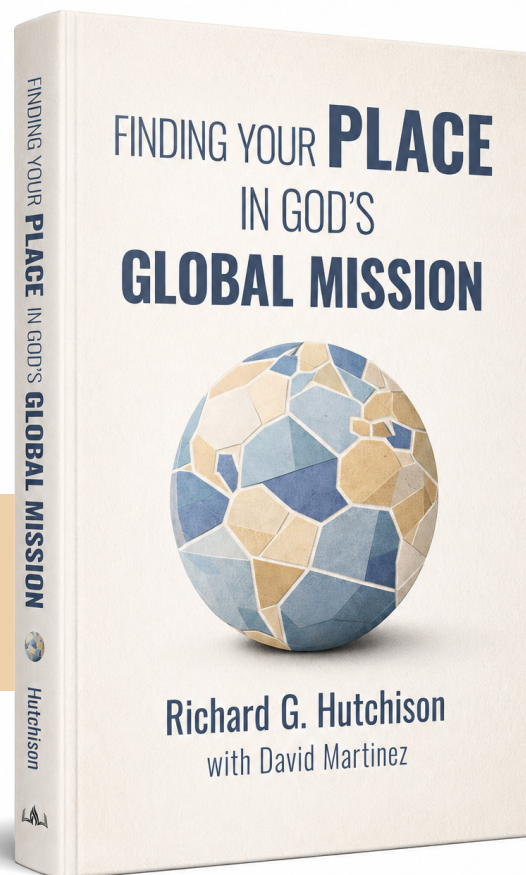

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

R. G. Hutchison serves as General Missions Director for the Bible Methodist Connection of Churches. He has pastored in the United States and served as a missionary and field director in the Philippines, where he trained pastors and led theological education.

David Martinez serves as a Bible Methodist missionary in Mexico, focusing on theological education and translation work. He teaches through Ezra Biblical Seminary and helps equip leaders throughout Latin America.

"Finding Your Place in God's Global Mission is an essential resource for every believer. Hutchison and Martinez masterfully trace God's redemptive mission from Scripture to today, equipping local churches to engage meaningfully as the primary sending community in God's global story."
